10 JOB SITES · ALL STARTUP-FRIENDLY

THE STARTUP JOB LIST

Ten places to find startup jobs that beat scrolling LinkedIn, with the link to each and what it's best for.

WHAT THIS IS

I got my job at a startup without applying anywhere. I sent the founder one cold message. But you still need to know which companies are hiring, and these are the places I'd look. Every link was checked on 2 November 2026.

> The honest promise. A job board gets you into the queue. To skip it, find the role here, then message the person who runs the team directly, with a small piece of the work already done.

3. Message them directly, open with something they wrote, and send a small piece of the job done before they ask.
